Financial Aid Application

Tufts University Non-Degree Programs

Tufts University awards financial aid for non-degree programs through Tuition Scholarships for students who demonstrate financial need. Each of the programs offering financial aid in this way offers a very limited number of scholarships, typically covering 75-100% of the program fee based on demonstrated need. We will distribute two awards in February and will continue to make awards in March and April until all available funds have been distributed. As such, early application for assistance is encouraged. At this time, financial aid is not available to international students.
